Have you been looking for an opportunity to explore what this thing called Christianity really is? Join others, like yourself, where questions can be answered in a loving way, supported by people who care about you. This is your opportunity to join in a meal as you explore the Gospel of Mark.

“ You don’t need to know anything about the Bible. You won’t be asked to read out loud, sing or even pray. You can ask any questions.”

Bring nothing but yourself and desire to explore. No religious background is necessary so you will never feel uncomfortable. The sessions include people from many backgrounds and experiences. These include folks who have not attended church in years to those just looking to find out more about Jesus Christ. Pastor Michael Mirakian will be leading the discussion.
